SOME PRIZE POTATOES

Last Saturday, Ferdinand Boehm, who has a farm near Rhinelander, brought to this office a bushel of potatoes as samples of the excellent quality of tubers that his land is capable of growing. After sampling some of the potatoes we came to the conclusion that they were just about the best we have ever eaten. They are sound and mealy, of fine flavor and would tempt the most fastidious palate. We doubt if the famous potato belt in the southern counties could produce their equal. We are thankful to Mr. Boehm for so generously remembering the editor.

GAME WARDENS ARE AFTER BAD INDIANS

Band of Pottawotamies Doing Illegal
Hunting—Warden Rowett Kills
Indian in Rifle Battle.

Game Wardens Martin Berg of this city and James Oberholzer of Eagle River, in company with a number of Michigan game wardens, are spending the week in the vicinity of Ciscow Lake in an effort to track down and arrest a band of Indians who have for some time been engaged in illegal hunting.

The red skins are reported to be desperate and it is believed that should the wardens meet them a battle cannot be averted.

Warden John Rowett of Michigan who is personally known to many Rhinelander people, encountered several of the band at a point near Pomeroy Lake, a week ago last Monday. The Indians had a big collection of beaver skins and considerable venison in their possession and when the warden attempted to arrest them they drew their rifles and commenced to fire at him. Warden Rowett immediately put his own rifle into service and in the little skirmish that ensued he shot and instantly killed one of the number.

This was an Indian who was shooting at the warden from behind a tree. In endeavoring to secure a better aim he swung his body slightly to one side and Rowett fired the fatal shot. In the band were several squaws and they are said to have fought as fiercely as the men.

After killing the Indian, Rowett retreated, shooting at intervals in order to keep his assailants back, but not trying to kill any more of them.

The Indians are said to a portion of a band of Pottawotamies who have wandered into that territory from the southwest and have already killed many deer. The headquarters of the band is believed to be in the vicinity of Lake Vieux Desert and it is supposed that this is where the Indians who were engaged in the fight with the game warden have gone.

LOOKS BAD FOR SERO

May Lose Odanah Job As Result Of Investigation

As a result of the investigation conducted by the subcommittee of the committee on Indian affairs of the United States senate, Assistant Indian Farmer Sero will undoubtedly have to go. He has been convicted of a crime by a jury. Not only was he convicted but the evidence showed that he furnished liquor to two Indian women, while supposedly getting evidence against parties for introducing liquor upon the reservation.

It is possible, too, that there may be a change in the method of paying the Indians their money. While none of the Senators made any public statement, the impression is, that some of them at least, favor some sort of a modification. They believe that the younger Indians, who show some capability of handling their own affairs, should be given that opportunity, and that they should have their money, but that the older ones, and those who have not shown capability should be treated as they are now.

ANOTHER PARTRIDGE STORY

Chief of Police Maurice Straub makes no boast of being a hunter but at the same time he is able to secure partridges without the aid of a gun. While he was walking in front of the Hilber Hotel, Friday morning, a nice plump partridge flew against the glass front of the building and falling to the ground was picked up by the Chief. Some of our readers may be inclined to accept the story with a grain of salt but several people who witnessed the incident can vouch for its truthfulness. The bird formed a tempting morsel for the officer's dinner.

JUMPS BOARD BILL

Wm. D. Murray was arrested at Minocqua yesterday for attempting to defraud Wm. F. Kelley, proprietor of the Hotel Fuller, out of the amount of a two weeks board bill.

Murray is about twenty-five years of age and pretends to represent a collection agency.

BIG PURCHASE OF LUMBER

Chicago Firm Buys Fourteen Million Feet From Menasha Co.

The John Spry Lumber Company of Chicago has purchased from the Menasha Lumber Company fourteen million feet of pine lumber. The Robbins Lumber Company has just completed cutting this lumber at their saw mill in this city.

The Spry company will establish a shipping department here and will employ a large crew of men in loading the cut on cars for shipment to Chicago.

This will be one of the largest lots of pine lumber ever sent out of Rhinelander. It is estimated that it will require nearly one year to finish the shipment. White pine is becoming very scarce in this territory and the few standing tracts will be cut within a short time.

Geo. Spry, president of the Spry Company, was in the city Tuesday looking after his firm's interests.

SENATORS PAY CITY

A MIDNIGHT VISIT

Indian Investigation Committee Tarries
Three Hours Here in Private Car—
LaFollette in Party.

The United States Senate committee on Indian affairs consisting of Senators LaFollette, Clapp, Page and Brown spent Monday at Lac du Flambeau making an investigation of conditions existing among the Indians on the Flambeau reservation.

It is understood that affairs on that reservation have been conducted in such a manner that the committee had very little work to do there. But few of the tribe had any grievances to be heard and none of the complaints were of much importance.

The Senators finished their investigation at Lac du Flambeau, Monday afternoon. That evening the private car occupied by the committee was attached to number 6, the south bound Northwestern limited, and carried as far as this city where it was transferred to the Soo line. The party left on the Soo limited early Tuesday morning for Keshena reservation. The Indians on that reservation have recently been making vigorous protests in regard to the way in which the authorities have been looking after their interests and the committee will probably be detained there for three or four days.

At the Odanah reservation the investigations were very searching, the sessions continuing each day until long after midnight. For nearly half a century the Indians have been in the habit of sending delegations to Washington to present their troubles before the President and they had much to tell the committee. The investigation there will no doubt result in some of the officials losing their positions.

The opinion is that the Morrisons, John Doherty and Frank Murray, Indians, who were ordered off the reservation, several months ago, will be reinstated providing they sign agreements to hereafter behave themselves.

Party Is Asleep

Aside from the railroad employees there were but few people in this city who were aware that the Senators were to pass through Rhinelander. They spent nearly three hours in the city from 11:22 Monday night until 2:10 Tuesday morning. The magnificent private car in which the committee is making this tour was practically dark and the distinguished occupants were fast in slumber. Two colored porters were the only persons awake. The party is comprised of eighteen people, each Senator being accompanied by his secretary and stenographers.

It is to be regretted that the Senators were here during such unseasonable hours otherwise provisions might have been made for their coming and a reception tendered them.

RARE DISPLAY OF FURS

On exhibition in the center display window of Jacobson's store is one of the prettiest and most costly collections of furs ever seen in Rhinelander.

In the exhibit are several leopard rugs and skins of other beasts such as "Teddy" Roosevelt is now hunting in the African jungles. The head and skin of a large brown bear is also in the group together with a rare assortment of mink, blue fox and other expensive furs.

FALL TERM CIRCUIT COURT IN SESSION

Grand Jury Cases Are Adjourned Until November—Aseline Murder Case
Now Being Tried.

The fall term of circuit court for Oneida county convened in this city Monday afternoon.

The first duty of Judge Reid was to hear the applications of several persons who desired to secure citizenship papers. R. K. Doe, representing the United States government, was in court and thoroughly questioned each applicant to ascertain whether or not papers should be granted. Several were unable to answer the questions satisfactorily and therefore were denied the privilege of becoming citizens. About ten of the applicants received papers.

Cases Are Adjourned

The ten cases appearing on the calendar against men indicted by the grand jury for malfeasance in office will not be tried at this time but were adjourned until November 23. This was agreed upon by the attorneys and the date set convenient for the judge.

It was understood previously that these cases would be continued and a strong effort was made to have them heard at this time. District Attorney Miller stated that he was not prepared to try the cases and it was then decided to postpone them for an adjourned session. The majority of the indicted men were anxious to have the cases come up immediately and their lawyers worked toward this end.

Murder Case On

The trial of Louis Aseline, charged with the murder of William Schofield, is now being heard. In securing a jury for this case there was much difficulty experienced as the crime has been so completely discussed that there is scarcely a man in the city or county who has not formed an opinion regarding the innocence or guilt of the defendant. It was necessary for a special venire to be called and this was composed of twenty-four men selected by Sheriff Jilson. At a few minutes after three o'clock Wednesday afternoon the jury was finally completed.

Those serving are: Antoine Rosemark, Wm. Ellis, Peter Hammer, Avid Mode and Mike Landson of Rhinelander; August Schlichting of Town of Pelican; Chas. Sanders of Tomahawk Lake; James Kennedy and Leo Bishop of Three Lakes; O. H. McLaughlin of Newbold; Sam Smith of Minocqua and Olof Olson of Cassian.

This case will not occupy much time as there are not many witnesses to be examined. It is probable that the hearing of testimony will be finished this afternoon and the jury will retire this evening.

The court room is crowded with spectators.

The prisoner is being defended by H. T. Ames, of Minocqua, judge of the second municipal court of Oneida county.

BOWLING ALLEYS TO OPEN

The Anderson bowling alleys on Stevens street will open for the season next Saturday. It has been arranged to observe the opening with a match game between two local bowling teams. This event will undoubtedly attract a large crowd as there are many people in Rhinelander who are enthusiastic regarding bowling.

The Anderson alleys are among the best in the state and will prove popular during the fall and winter months.

ROONEY WANTS REVENGE

According to the statement of Pitcher Frank Rooney, the manager of the Hurley base ball team owes him twenty-three dollars for services. Rooney, before leaving for Cleveland, said that he would return to the Rhinelander team next year and show Hurley a few little tricks in the art of base ball just to get even for that back salary due him.

Rooney is one of the fastest little pitchers ever seen on the local diamond and he made a "hit" with the Rhinelander fans. He possesses no bad habits, is always in fine working trim and believes in saving his money when he left this city last week, he had nearly two hundred dollars which he saved from his earnings of the last season.

THOUGHT HE HEARD BURGLARS

Dr. McIndoe Has a Strange Experience Last Saturday Morning
Imagining that he heard burglars in the house, Dr. T. B. McIndoe arose from his warm comfortable bed, last Friday morning, and grasping his trusty partridge gun, crept stealthily down the back stairway to the region of the kitchen where he believed the house breakers to be operating.

Quietly opening the kitchen door, the doctor, scarcely able to control his excitement, stretched forth his head and in blood curdling tones cried, "Out of there or I'll shoot." Immediately the outer door flew open and through it rapidly disappeared the figure of a man. At the same moment a shrill female voice pleaded, "Oh, doctor please don't shoot him."

Then the startled M. D. saw through it all. Instead of burglars, as he had surmised, the servant who attends to the domestic duties of the household was merely entertaining her best braux.

The story was too good for the doctor to keep and that is why all his friends smoked good cigars at his expense.

BUNDY IS HUSTLING LITTLE MILL TOWN

Many Former Rhinelander People Residing There—Bundy Lumber Company Employs 350 Men.

From the last issue of "The Tomahawk" is taken the following article on Bundy, the prosperous little lumber town, located twelve miles south of Rhinelander.

While "lost" at Sunday last Sunday the editors of this paper were guests of Mr. and Mrs. M. H. Taggart, and while there we had the pleasure of meeting many of the good people of that little, but strictly up-to-date burg.

Bundy is located in the town of Harrison. The village is on the shores of Pine Lake, a beautiful little sheet of water, where there are some seventy-five dwelling houses, a saw and planing mill, wood mill, a large boarding house, a fine country school, town hall, general store, post office, barns, etc. The manufacturing plants are owned and operated by the Bundy Lumber Company.

The mill has a sawing capacity of 50,000 feet per day and under the efficient management of E. N. Morrill, the plant is kept in operation steadily. There are several logging camps near by and logs are brought to the mill by rail the company owning two locomotives.

Wm. Haviland is the hustling superintendent of the logging operations. The company is cutting mixed timber—pine, hemlock and hardwood.

Mr. Taggart is manager of the general store and also chairman of the town of Harrison, and Mrs. Taggart is postmistress. Judging from the appearance of the store and postoffice Mr. and Mrs. Taggart are giving the people of Bundy only the best of service.

The school is substantially built and on Monday morning we found the children neat, tidy and happy, as were Prof. Fred E. Erickson of Milwaukee, Miss Ruby Jennings of Rhinelander and Miss Lucy Bufeau of Merrill.

The Bundy Lumber Company employs some 350 men and the social life of the place is ideal, as the utmost harmony prevails in the little, but prosperous and happy place.

A MONSTER "MUSKY."

A fishing party consisting of Jesse Hawkins, Leu Denoyer, Frank D. Ward and Fred Freeman landed a muskallonge weighing over thirty pounds in the Wisconsin River last Sunday morning. The big fish made a desperate fight, lashing the placid waters of the stream in sprays of foam as white as the ocean billows.

In the excitement, the monster was towed ashore, while one of the party could get a stone to end its struggles. An ax for this purpose, carried in the boat, was entirely forgotten. Fred Freeman administered the death blows, and when he had completed the execution, was as nervous as if he had just joined the Eagles.

Many flattering offers were made for the fish but it was divided among friends of the lucky quartette.

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Shaw of Cranston were in the city Monday.

Cut the weeds, cut them right away. The backyards and allers are fringed with death. Decaying vegetation breeds fevers. You may have noticed that typhoid and malaria are more prevalent in autumn than in any other seasons. The reason is plain: You grow a crop of it all summer and you harvest it in the fall, and pay the doctor for his work besides. Cut the weeds and burn them as soon as dry.

Ties and parts of the rail for a distance of more than three miles along the Ashland division of the North-western road between New London and Clintonville, will have to be repaired or removed entirely as a result of the dragging over that section of the road of a flat car that jumped the track a short way outside of New London and was not discovered for ten minutes. Trainmen declare it remarkable that the derailed car did not cause the ditching of half the train. It is said to be the first case on record where couplings have held a derailed car for so great a distance.

Who found the North Pole?
"I," said Cook.
"And my little book
Will tell how I took
The grand first look
At the great North Pole."
—One Who Knows, in the Democrat and Chronicle

Poor Peary, he is to be pitted and not condemned. He seems to have a nature which can not tolerate competition. Now it comes to light that he even refused to bring Cook's instruments back to the United States for fear they hazarded his claim to the discovery of the pole.

It is amusing to see LaFollette's enemies searching for a candidate to defeat the senator in the next primary. General McArthur would be a logical candidate. He knows nothing of statescraft and consequently would not oppose the greed of the corporations.

It takes a very small space to tell why John Strange should not be a candidate for governor on the republican ticket. He represents no element of his party. He believes in high tariff so could not possibly consistently lead the progressives and favors primary election so could not represent the conservatives.

This week the whole East have their eyes upon the great celebration of the discovery of the Hudson River by Hendrick Hudson and the invention of the steamboat by Fulton. When one contrasts the present conditions with those of three centuries ago, it hardly seems possible to realize what has been accomplished in so short a time. Then the Hudson was a wild undiscovered region inhabited by Indians and today millions of civilized people are viewing the display of the great navies of the world. Great is the change.

A study of the political conditions in New York reveals the fact that the old line politicians are arrayed against Governor Hughes almost to a man. They seem to realize that his hold upon the masses is breaking down their political power. Their whole effort is to secure a legislature opposed to primary election and other needed reforms.

With these machine politicians are arrayed the race track gamblers whose fun the governor has spoiled.

In spite of the opposition of the professional politicians and gamblers the people of the state "love Governor Hughes for the enemies he has made."

CHECKS IN SMALL SUMS.

The new law which many newspapers have interpreted as meaning that no check shall be written for a less denomination than one dollar reads as follows:

"No person shall make, issue, circulate or pay out any note, check, memorandum or token or other obligation for less sum than one dollar, intended to circulate as money or to be received or used in lieu of lawful money of the United States, and every person so offending shall be fined not more than $500, or imprisonment not more than six months, or both."

We fail to see why such a law was passed unless Standard Oil saw some good reason why it should be. It is the custom of many firms to pay all their bills in checks and we see no good reason why they should not continue to do so if they wish.

The law goes into effect January 10, 1910, and if the newspapers have not interpreted it correctly, the attorney general should enlighten the people before an innocent man is punished for an unintentional wrong. It seems like one of those fool laws which can not possibly benefit the people.

LaFOLLETTE'S REPLY

Senator La Follette, it must be conceded, makes a pert and pat reply to Taft at Winona. The President, it will be remembered, defended those who, in the tariff voting, "helped to maintain the party solidarity for accomplishing its chief purposes," thus by inference, though not by direct word, chiding the insurgents who bolted. To this delicate rebuke the Wisconsin fighter replies.

"There can be no chief purpose of a political party higher than the purpose of redeeming its promises to the people. A representative is nowise compelled to accept the alternative of abandoning principle or abandoning his party. Emphatically not when the principal is one that has been accepted by the party as the basis of its appeal for votes. That appeal, when accomplished by the voters in good faith becomes binding upon the party representative—an obligation higher than the mere demands of party solidarity under a misrepresentative leadership in Congress."

In principle what LaFollette says is sound. Principle should be above party.—Rockester N. Y. Evening Times.—Republican.

WASHINGTON LETTER

If any doubt remains in the minds of the sincere personal admirers of President Taft as to his attitude in the Republican party that doubt was removed by his recent speeches. President Taft is the friend and defender of Aldrich and Cannon and is not in sympathy with the progressive movement. The circumstances under which he assumed office, in fact some of the conditions surrounding his nomination gave rise to suspicion that Mr. Taft was not in sympathy with the policies of President Roosevelt. In the course of his campaign for nomination a secret circular sent out from his headquarters in Columbus giving assurances to Wall Street, became public. This document practically committed President Taft to a reversal of Roosevelt policies. Promptly Mr. Taft, who was then Secretary of War, repudiated the circular and his manager in Columbus declared that it was issued without authority by an attaché of the headquarters and he was disciplined. The very fact that President Roosevelt was behind Mr. Taft's candidacy with a powerful influence of his administration was sufficient assurance to many progressive Republicans that Mr. Taft would carry out in good faith the policies of his predecessor. They believed this in spite of the fact that it was known that vast sums of money were expended by Mr. Taft's relatives to bring about his nomination, which under some circumstances might have raised a suspicion of a scandal. Then the President in his inaugural address solemnly pledged himself to the perpetration of the Roosevelt policies; his pledge was accepted in good faith. The Wall Street interests declared that this pledge was not to be taken too seriously.

President Taft gave disappointment in some quarters by the way in which he selected his advisors. He took his Attorney General from Wall Street, where he had been the protégé of J. Pierpont Morgan, Thomas P. Ryan and other money kings. He called into consultation Senator Knox, Elihu Root, Senator Crane and Jonathan Bourne of Oregon. Many of the progressive Republicans who worked before the Chicago convention and at that convention to bring about Mr. Taft's nomination, found it imposble after he became President to reach him personally except by running the gauntlet of the class of men representing the "reactionary" element in the Republican party who were at Chicago during the Republican National Convention trying in every way possible to form some combination by which to defeat Taft. Just why the President should have made these men his advisors at the very outset of his administration was hard to explain to the average friend of Mr. Taft except on the ground that the President desired to reunite his party and to show that he cherished no resentment on account of the incident attending his campaign for nomination. One of the first things the President did that occasioned surprise was his flat refusal to appoint Wm. Loeb, Jr. a member of his cabinet. Mr. Taft owes as much probably to Mr. Loeb for his nomination as he does to any single individual in the Republican party, other than Mr. Roosevelt himself. But Mr. Taft took the ground that he wanted to divorce his administration from all suspicion of being an echo of Roosevelt. Mr. Loeb was given a very desirable appointment in the collectorship of customs at New York but it is not what he desired and is not what President Roosevelt would have wished Mr. Loeb to have. Mr. Roosevelt maintained that it would not be proper for him to make a request of President Taft to appoint anyone to office and he adhered to it, but he was disappointed when Loeb was not given a place in the cabinet. This statement is made on authority.

Some of the President's friends believe that his remarkable attitude is due to bad advice. They are men who, like Senator Bourne of Oregon, worked in season and out of season to prevent Taft's nomination but who were the first to gather around him after he took the oath of office and offer him advice. Senator Aldrich was a supporter of Taft at Chicago as was Senator Hale of Maine but they were among the latest of the converts to his call. A short time before the Chicago convention met they openly declared for Taft when it became apparent to them that he was certain to be nominated. Now they are telling the President that in order to be re-nominated he must unify the party, quiet the business interests and administer the chloroform in all his executive actions.

Mrs. John Hogan, who for several weeks has been critically ill, is reported to be gradually growing weaker and no hope is expressed for her recovery.

FOOT BALL SEASON ON

High School Boys Organize a Fast Team for 1909.

The Rhinelander High School boys have organized a foot ball team for the season of 1909. The team this year while not as heavy as teams of former seasons is nevertheless a fast one and will probably carry off many honors on the gridiron.

Practice work is being conducted each evening under the able coaching of F. B. Moody. Last Saturday afternoon a practice game with the second Highs was held at the fair grounds and the big team showed up wonderfully well. While the lineup has not yet been completed it is believed that there will be but little changes in the present positions. Several of the players were on last year's squad and this experience has been of much value to them.

Will Rutz has been elected captain of the team. Rutz is popular among the High School boys and his election was almost unanimous.

The following schedule of games for the season has been arranged:

October 9.—Eagle River at Rhinelander.
October 15.—Ironwood at Ironwood.
October 16.—Ashland at Ashland.
October 23.—Merrill at Rhinelander.
October 29.—Wausau at Wausau

HENRY A. ROCKWOOD DEAD

Was a Well Known Farmer of Town of Sugar Camp

Henry A. Rockwood, a prominent farmer of the town of Sugar Camp, passed away Sunday morning at St. Mary's Hospital following a short illness with cancer of the stomach.

Mr. Rockwood had been at the hospital about one week and a few days previous to his death submitted to an operation. His condition was found to be such that the physicians offered no hope whatever and the end was expected at any time.

Deceased was born at Potsdam, St. Lawrence county, N. Y., on July 5, 1892. On March 31, 1892 he was united in marriage to Miss Emma Jenkins at East Wrightstown. To them was born one child, Mayford, now eleven years of age.

The family moved to Onondaga county from Greenleaf, Wis., two years ago and located on lands in Sugar Camp. Mr. Rockwood was a firm believer in the future of this county and took interest in developing his farm. He was a faithful worker, a good citizen, and his death is deeply lamented. He frequently visited Rhinelander and had a large acquaintance here.

The funeral was held Tuesday forenoon from the First Baptist church, Rev. Bergstrom officiating. Many friends and neighbors from Sugar Camp were in attendance.

In their sorrow the family has the heartfelt sympathy of the community.

DECIDES FOR WOODLOCK

In the case of the town of Minocqua vs. John Woodlock involving lands in the town of Minocqua, Judge Reid has handed down a decision in favor of Woodlock. The case been in the courts for the last few years and was one that attracted much interest.

It is understood that the town of Minocqua will appeal the decision.

NOT ONE FATALITY

During the fiscal year that came to an end on June 30 last the Northwest road carried a total of 270,000,000 people without a single fatality. This is the first record reporting such a remarkable record for the current fiscal year. Two roads, the Pennsylvania and the Burlington, accomplished a similar feat for the calendar year of 1908. The three records are taken by railway experts to indicate clearly that the science of railroad operation has made a substantial advance during the last two or three years. Better discipline has been inaugurated and block signal systems have been extended.

PE-RU-NA USED FOR KIDNEY CATARRH.

Gen. A. F. Hawley, of Washington, D. C., writes: "I have used Peruna and find it very beneficial for kidney trouble, and especially good for coughs, colds and catarrhal troubles."

Gen. A. F. Hawley.

Kidney Trouble for Nearly Thirty Years.

William Bailey, Past Col. Enc. No. 60, Union Veteran Legion, and prominently identified with many of the great labor protective associations in Chicago and New York, and secretary of one of the largest associations in the former city, had for nearly thirty years been afflicted with kidney troubles.

Within a short period he has been persuaded to try Peruna, and his present healthy condition is attributed to his judicious use of that great remedy. Washington climate is notoriously bad for kidney and liver troubles, yet by a judicious use of the remedy he is now quite cured and in excellent physical condition.

This brief statement of facts, without exaggeration or hyperbole, appears to tell the whole story, which the Peruna Company is authorized to use, if it so chooses, believing, as I do, that by so doing it will be for the general good.

William Bailey, 531 S. E. Washington, D. C.

Kidneys Affected—Back Weak.

Mr. M. Broderick, Secretary and Treasurer Local Union No. 404, International Brotherhood of Teamsters, writes from 435 E. 45th St., Chicago, Ill., as follows:

"I have been suffering from a weak back and kidney trouble for some time, and have been able to find relief only through the use of Peruna."

"During the winter season I usually keep a bottle of your medicine in the house, and by taking a dose at night I am feeling fine the next morning."

"Some of my friends assure me that Peruna is equally as good for their various ailments as it is for my complaint; but I do know that for kidney trouble and suffering from a weak back it has no equal."

Cold Settled in Kidneys.

Mr. Joseph Klee, 215 East 4th St., Topeka, Kas., writes:

"My wife took Peruna for liver trouble and a run-down condition incident to the same. A few bottles built up her health and strength."

"I took Peruna for a cold which settled in my kidneys, giving me much pain. In two weeks I was much better, and in a few months I was well."

For Liver and Kidneys.

Mr. W. H. Armistead, Cumberland, C. H., Va., writes:

"Your Peruna has cured me of chronic catarrh of long standing. I thank you so much for your advice. I think it is a great medicine. It will do all that you recommend it to do. Besides, I can recommend it to cure all liver and kidney troubles."

Chronic Kidney Trouble.

Judge C. J. Park, R. F. D. 1, Buckhead, Ga., writes:

"For a long time I was troubled with catarrh of the kidneys, and after taking Peruna I feel like a new man. I think it the greatest catarrh medicine of the age, and believe it will cure any case of catarrh on record."

The violin music by Messrs. La Mott and Gaston at the Baptist church Sunday evenings is proving a very attractive feature of the services. The services are evangelistic in character and give promise of growing interest. The old songs are sung and the old gospel is preached.

A man bought a pair of shoes at a shoe dealer's for $5.00. The purchaser handed the shoe dealer a ten dollar bill. The shoe dealer having no change goes to the grocer and receives two five dollar bills for his ten. He hands the purchaser a five dollar bill and the pair of shoes. A few minutes later the grocer finds that the ten dollar bill is bogus and gets two fives in return from the shoe dealer. How much is the shoe dealer out?

The other day a merchant saw a farmer receiving goods at the station from a Chicago mail-order house. The goods were in his line and the same had been carried in his store for years. He approached the farmer and said: "I could have sold you every article you have for less money than you paid the Chicago house, and save you the freight, besides." "Then why on earth don't you say so?" answered the farmer. "I have taken the local paper for years, and have never seen a line about your selling these goods. The Chicago house sent advertising matter to me asking for my trade and they got it."

SOO BUYS NEW LINE

It is generally believed that the Soo line has purchased the new Wisconsin & Northern railway. Saturday's papers contained a statement from C. H. Hartley, general manager of the road, in which he said that work on the new line will now be pushed as rapidly as possible and trains will be running over the line from Appleton to Crandon by the end of 1910.

The road is now in operation between Shawano and North Crandon where it connects with the Soo line.

INDIANS ARE HUNTING

Reports state that the woods of Iron and Vilas counties see large bands of Indians fishing and hunting at this time of year. Some of them have even been bold enough to hunt deer with hounds. The rice beds in some of the marshes are stripped every year by the Flambeau Indians who pitch their tents on the shores of the lakes while they gather the cereal and husk it in their primitive fashion.

$3.75 Mother's Oats Fireless Cooker and a complete assortment of $2.84
MOTHER'S CEREALS - all for $2.84

The Mother's Oats Fireless Cooker actually cooks without fuel. It solves the servant problem, the fuel problem and the delayed dinner problem. It saves 80% of your present coal or gas bills, and 90% of your present kitchen worries. When you own a Mother's Oats Fireless Cooker, you simply place your oatmeal (or anything else that you want to prepare) on the stove, bring it to a boiling point, remove, place in Fireless Cooker, put the pad in position, tug the draw-string, and go to bed. While you're sleeping, the food will keep cooking itself. Nothing can boil over or burn or spoil. During the day you can start soup or joints or vegetables, place them in the Cooker, visit your neighbor, go to the matinee, or shop, without any thought of a hot, stuffy kitchen range.

Now, there is only one way that you can get a Mother's Oats Fireless Cooker, unless you want to go to a store and pay $3.75 for it, and that is by being a user of Mother's Cereals, the best cereals, prepared in the largest mills, and sold everywhere by the best dealers in every town. In every package we place a coupon, and when you have 125 coupons we'll send you the $3.75 Fireless Cooker for nothing. If you want a Fireless Cooker in a hurry, you can either buy ten packages of MOTHER'S OATS or any other Mother's Cereals, and get the Cooker immediately by paying $1.15 in cash or upon the following basis:

50 coupons and $.75 cash
35 coupons and .90 cash
25 coupons and 1.00 cash
15 coupons and 1.10 cash
10 coupons and 1.15 cash

But the best way of all is to go to your grocer and ask him to supply you with which contains a complete assortment of different delicious cereals for every palate and for every meal. Not only is it an advantage to buy your staple cereals in sufficient quantity at attractive prices (just as it's cheaper to buy flour by the barrel or butter by the crock) but in every Mother's Kit there is in addition to the saving of quite a considerable sum of money, a special Fireless Cooker Certificate, equal to eighteen coupons, which, when added to the coupons from the packages in the kit, enables you to secure a Cooker by merely adding 89 cents. A Mother's Kit consists of eighteen assorted packages of Mother's Cereals, packed in sanitary sealed packages, in which they are guaranteed to keep in perfect condition indefinitely.

8 packages of Mother's Oats, standard size
2 packages of Mother's Yellow Corn Meal
1 package of Mother's White Corn Meal
1 package of Mother's Wheat Hearts
1 package of Mother's Oat Flakes (Toasted)
1 package of Mother's Old-Fashioned Steel Cut Oatmeal
2 packages of Mother's Granulated Hominy
2 packages of Mother's Coarse Pearl Hominy

This Kit can be purchased at your grocer's by simply paying $1.95 (a little more at distant points). The grocer himself will either redeem your coupons and deliver the $3.75 Fireless Cooker, or, if you so desire, send the coupons and 89c directly to us and we will ship the cooker to you, express collect.

WATCHING FOR COMET

Vigil has already begun at the Washington Observatory at the University of Wisconsin, for the noted Halley comet, which has appeared at intervals of about seventy-five years for the last twenty centuries. The comet is due the middle of next April, but as its transit is somewhat irregular, a watch has already been established, by Prof. G.
Comstock, director of the university observatory, as well as by sixty other eminent astronomers in various countries.

The progress which has been made in the methods and instruments used in making observations since 1835, the time of the last appearance of the comet, will be measured by the success of the astronomers in obtaining its flight this year.

The way the comet will appear depends on the exact day of its approach, it should be, Prof. Comstock says, a brilliant object in the sky, as morning star the first part of April, passing on toward the sun as an evening star near the end of the month.

SCHOOL FOR NURSES

Several large classes of students are about to be enrolled in the Philadelphia School for Nurses, who will, doubtless, witness the extension of the work of the institution in accordance with plans now developing as a result of the recent New England conferences. A large number of free two year scholarships are available to young women throughout the entire country, preferences being given to those living in smaller towns and cities, and the rural districts. These scholarships include room, board, laundrying, uniforms, all necessary instruction, and railroad fare paid to the student's home town upon the completion of the course. A preparatory Home Study Course and a Short Resident Course are also available to those who desire to quickly prepare themselves for self-support, but are unable to devote two years to study. Any reader of this paper who may be interested in the general subject can, by addressing the school at 2319 Chestnut street, Philadelphia, Pa., get full details of the work, and the scholarships now available.

AT THE CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH.

Services of unusual interest are being enjoyed by those who attend the Congregational church Sunday evenings. Music is a prominent feature, being furnished by a large chorus together with occasional solos by the regular soprano of the quartet. An additional feature for next Sunday evening will be an address by the pastor on the subject,
"Lessons from the Life of Governor Johnson." The mornings services, which have been commencing at 11 o'clock during the summer, will begin at 10:30 next Sunday, and Sunday School will begin at 11:45.
